Year: 2013
Location: Switzerland
Program: Exhibition

Red Cross Museum “The Humanitarian Adventure: Reducing Natural Risks”

In the museum, the paper tubes are arranged in organic curves and waves reminiscent of a forest or wetlands, giving a sense of flexibility, strength and resilience. There is an interactive game room for visitors, which tests their decision-making skills as if they were to experience a hurricane.