

Bong Mu Housing

Year: 2006

Location: Korea

Program: Residential

Status: Unbuilt

Type: New-built

Structure:

The apartments planned for Bong Mu in South Korea are free of transversal walls, allowing for cross-ventilation and openness. The overall structural system is achieved by transferring lateral forces through floor slabs from one wall to the next, the S-shape of the building gives balance to the structure.