

Year: 2010
Location: France
Program: House

Residential Building on Quai Henri IV

This 160-unit housing project was proposed in the 4th arrondissement of Paris. The double height maisonette and single height units are randomly arranged to create a unique and distinctive façade along the main street front. A more uniform and consistent single storey façade expression faces the interior courtyards.