

Year: 2016
Location: Spain
Program:

Camper Mallorca

The aim of this project is to accommodate new functions inside the existing Camper factory located in Mallorca. In the middle of this space, a paper honeycomb structure is designed to host the main store. This structure of nine meters height is covered by Tyvek Paper and during the night creates a “lantern” effect thanks to the spotlights integrated into the shelves. Additional spaces, like workshops and a bar surround the structure.