Year: 2019
Location: Japan
Program: Commercial Facility

Paper Greenhouse Les Tonnelles

This greenhouse is composed of arches made from paper tubes connected by metal joints. On the exterior, a readymade greenhouse frame has been installed, with a double layer of fluorine film and an air layer in between to reduce temperature changes in the interior. Later, the greenhouse was converted into a restaurant. In summer, the leaves of the plants being grown inside will cover the ceiling, thereby blocking sunlight.