

AUB New School of Business

Year: 2003

Location: Lebanon

Program: Education

Status: Competition

Type: New-built

Structure:

Responding to the scale of the neighboring buildings, the New School of Business is composed of a cluster of small volumes which are then enclosed within a large, transparent box that continues the public line of large scale buildings along the main road. A harmony is achieved between the small and large scales of the surroundings.