

Year: In progress

Location: United States

Program: Mixed Use

Kentucky Owl Park

Kentucky Owl Park is a project composed of rick houses for aging, a bottling center, a state-of-the-art distillery and offices for the American whiskey company at the 420-acre site with the natural rustic quarry. Each building is designed to have a distinct structural form that incorporates visual elements of the local bourbon-making process. The existing quarry pits will be turned into beautiful lakes with crystal-clear, limestone-filtered water.