

Year: 2006

Location: South Korea

Program:

Papertainer Museum

The surrounding forest and circular pass generated the shape of this temporary exhibition pavilion composed of two different spaces. The Container Gallery consists of two parallel, ten meter high walls of shipping containers. The first row of containers is used as exhibition booths while the second row serves as office and storage spaces. The Paper Gallery is organized between two concentric semi-circular walls made of paper tube columns.