

Year: 2008
Location: British West Indies
Program: House

Dellis Cay Westbeach

The proposed layout for this exclusive villa arranges all interior spaces along a curvilinear path stretching throughout the site. The interior spaces lifted up to the second floor allow for covered terraces to enjoy outdoor activities next to the pool, pond, and surrounding landscape without obstructing views to the ocean. Multiple staircases provide easy access to all upper rooms and also function as the structural element for the cantilevering second floor, freeing the terraces underneath.