

Year: 2007

Location: Italy

Program: Exhibition

Artek Pavilion

UPM developed a new material called “Wood-Plastic Composite” which is self-adhesive label materials made of paper and plastic. Artek asked us to design their pavilion using this material. We used a truss system in this building because of its strength and elastic nature.