Year: 2013
Location: Japan
Program: House

House Vision 1 Furniture House

Instead of being supported by conventional columns and walls, this “Furniture House” is supported structurally by the furniture itself, creating a spacious and simple space which eliminates all extraneous and redundant elements. Furthermore, the furniture and unit details will be standardized to Muji storage compartment modules, bringing the utmost simplicity to the “Furniture House” design.