Year: 2008
Location: Japan
Program: Exhibition

Paper Tea House

The Paper tea house is made of square paper tubes. Walls are connected by a steel rod and the roof is made of folded paper. The floor and furniture are also made of the same square paper tube profile except the table made of honeycomb cardboard. The prefabrication process of elements allows for very easy assembly and disassembly.