

Year: 2006

Location: France

Program:

Papillon Pavilion for Icones Exposition

As part of an exhibition in which several artists and architects were each invited to create a work related to a “Louis Vuitton” hand bag, a temporary cupola structure on the 7th floor terrace of their headquarter was proposed. Working with reference to the “Papillon” bag, the cupola was constructed with paper tubes sheathed in the classic “Louis Vuitton” textile and sheltered with a white PVC membrane.