Year: 2006
Location: Singapore
Program: Exhibition

Singapore Biennale 2008 Pavilion

As an information center and press center for the 2006 Singapore Biennale, this is the first space frame structure to be constructed of paper tubes. All paper tube, steel connection, column, and foundation details were designed with the intention of possibly relocating the structure after its current use.