

Year: 2009

Location:

Program: Product Design

10 Units System

After designing the ARTEK pavilion for the 2007 Milan furniture fair using the new product made of recycled plastic and paper, the 10-unit system was developed with the same material. 10-Unit Systems made of a composite of recycled plastic and paper was designed with the same principle as the paper tube structures. The single standard “L” profile element is repeated to create chair, table and various other projects.