

Year: 1985

Location:

Program: Product Design

Light fixture Keiko

Shigeru Ban designed this light fixture during his college years. A straight fluorescent tube lamp was inserted within a truss frame allowing it to be free-standing or cantilevering from the wall. The translucent shade was made of Japanese Washi paper and is removable.