

Year: 2010

Location:

Program: Product Design

Olvari

The handle is simple, a nozzle circular brushed steel, which comes out from the body elliptical cross section, the same material and finish escutcheon. The elliptical body bends 90 degrees and turns in the handle, keeping intact the section. The handle ends with a 45° cut, revealing a perfect circle.