

Year: 2015

Location: Japan

Program: Culture and Leisure

KYOTO GRAPHIE PAPER TUBE TEMPORARY PAVILION

A temporary paper tube pavilion designed for Martin Gusinde Photo Exhibition at Kyotographie International Photo Festival was built in the middle of the open square at Kyoto City Hall. 27 columns made of paper tubes with a diameter of 330mm were used to make the exhibition space. It was built by volunteers mainly from Kyoto University of Art and Design and the photo exhibition was held for one month.