

Year: 2015

Location: Japan

Program:

Lune Table

By subtracting identical circular segments from each tabletop, the tables can be connected together—either paired through shared curves or arranged in a set of four to form a unified, petal-like shape.