

Year: 2011

Location:

Program:

Metz Chair

The Metz chair is inspired by the hexagonal laminated timber structure of the Centre Pompidou Metz, France. The development of the prototype has been completed in collaboration with ARTEK (Finland). The structure is made of form pressed birch plywood supported by white powder coated steel legs.