

Year: 2008

Location: United Arab Emirate

Program: Residential

Palm Jebel Ali Apartment

The design includes multi storey apartment units, a resident's-only gym area, ground floor food retail, and two basement car park levels. The site is accessible for pedestrians from three sides and has direct beach frontage. We designed each residential unit with a 45° angle towards the sea front; this provides each unit with magnificent sea view while respecting the direct overlooking into the assumed residence of the adjacent plot.