

Year: 2001

Location: United States

Program: Museum / Gallery

Paper Memorial for World Trade Center

This temporary building using paper tubes was a voluntary proposal for a memorial at the World Trade Center site after the tragic affairs of September 11th. The paper tubes used in the structure of Kobe's Paper Church would have been sent to New York towards this new cause.