

Year: 2013

Location: Japan

Program: Culture and Leisure

Yakushima Takazuka Lodge

Mountain hut built in the National park of Yakushima Island. The hut was rebuilt on the foundation of the previous dilapidated old hut taken down. The walls allow light to pour inside, by using transparent tubes in-between paper tube. There tubes can be easily replaced if damaged overtime within the harsh environment of the mountains.