

Year: 2015
Location: Japan
Program:

Shichitō-i Bench

This bench was created for the Ōita Prefectural Art Museum using shichitō-i—a rush plant traditionally cultivated in Ōita for making tatami mat surfaces. The legs and base were constructed by combining L-shaped cross-section laminated bamboo members.