

Year: 2002

Location: Japan

Program: Place of Worship

Church in Roppongi

The design of this Lutheran church strived to remain humble in response to the religious doctrine as well as the changing redevelopments of its surroundings. All utility spaces were placed underground, forming a base for the actual church, which is characterized by its triangular shape and a plan that narrows towards the altar.