Year: 1996
Location: Japan
Program: House

Furniture House 2

Furniture House 2 is the prototype of a two-story house employing furniture units as structural system. The furniture system used on the first floor is repeated on the second. More furniture units with different functions were developed and combined with “non-furniture” walls to create a system which allowed high flexibility in spatial arrangements.