

Year: 1998

Location: Japan

Program: Residential

Furniture House 3

The Furniture House 3 is a further development of the furniture unit system. The second story of the house arranges the furniture units in an L shape to expand the view in one direction. The cantilevering corner of the roof is held up by the double roof which also acts as bracing.