

Year: 2009

Location: France

Program: Museum / Gallery

Espace de Restitution de la Grotte Chauvet

This project included the reproduction of the cave itself, as well as exhibition halls in which the prehistoric context of the cave and the results of research to be presented. The criteria of selection were the integration of the site, the architectural quality of the project, and scenography of the areas located before and after the reproduction.