

Year: 2012
Location: Japan
Program: Retail and Commercial

T-2000 Project

To create a comfortable and homely environment, a timber structure, “house of furniture” is proposed. By providing the required shelving for the bookstore and utilizing these as structure, a column-free, wall-less, and flexible space is realized.