

Year: 2021

Location:

Program: Commercial Facility

Xian Daming Palace

The goal of this project is to prevent rainwater from infiltrating into the foundation of Hanyuan Hall and protect the foundation by setting up pavilion with light and thin paper tubes on the foundation. The external pillars use traditional "red lacquer" (raw lacquer), which ensures durability and restores the Daming Palace of the Tang Dynasty.